

John Calvin and Roman Catholicism

Calvin Studies Society Colloquium

McKenna Hall, University of Notre Dame
April 12–14, 2007

Sponsored by:
Henkels Lectures
The College of Arts and Letters
The Department of Theology

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND LETTERS

Calvin Studies Society Colloquium Schedule

April 12

- 12:00-1:00 Registration
- 1:00-1:30 Welcome
- 1:30-3:00 Irena Backus, University of Geneva
The French Roman Catholic Lives of Calvin from Bolsec to Richelieu: Why the Interest?
- 3:00-3:30 Coffee Break
- 3:30-5:00 Fr. George H. Tavard, A.A., Methodist Theological School in Ohio (Emeritus)
Calvin and the Nicodemites
- 6:00-7:30 Dinner
- 7:30-9:00 Carlos Eire, Yale University
John Calvin, Accidental Anthropologist: How Calvin stumbled upon a theory of religion by studying Catholic primitives
- 9:00-10:00 Reception

April 13

- 7:30-8:30 Breakfast
- 8:30-10:00 Business Meeting
- 10:00-10:30 Coffee Break
- 10:30-12:00 Karen Spierling, University of Louisville
Friend and Foe: Reformed Genevans and Catholic Neighbors in the Time of Calvin
- 12:00-1:30 Luncheon
- 1:30-3:00 Jill Fehleison, Quinnipiac University
Rules of Engagement: Catholics and Protestants in the Diocese of Geneva, 1580-1625
- 3:00-3:30 Coffee Break
- 3:30-5:00 Charles Parker, Saint Louis University
In partibus infidelium: Calvinism and Catholic Identity in the Dutch Republic
- 6:00 Dinner

April 14

- 7:30-8:30 Breakfast
- 8:30-10:00 Randall Zachman, University of Notre Dame
Revising the Reform: What Calvin Learned from Dialogue with the Roman Catholics
- 10:00-10:30 Coffee Break
- 10:30-12:00 Fr. Dennis Tamburello, O.F.M., Siena College
Sacramentality in Calvin? A Catholic Perspective
- 12:00-1:00 Luncheon

For a complete conference schedule, including presenters and topics, please visit: www.CalvinStudiesSociety.org
To register, go to: <https://marketplace.nd.edu/cce/>